

Finanz Informatik Signs Long-Term Contract with Nutanix

August 27, 2025

Trusted relationship between the companies played a key role in the decision

SAN JOSE, Calif. and FRANKFURT, Germany, Aug. 27, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Nutanix (NASDAQ: NTNX), a leader in hybrid multicloud computing, and Finanz Informatik (FI), today announced that they have decided to enter into a strategic collaboration and have signed a long-term contract. The digitalization partner and central IT service provider for Germany's Savings Banks Finance Group, serving around 50 million customers in Germany, will migrate its Windows and Linux workloads to the Nutanix platform over the next two years. The project is one of the most significant customer deals made by Nutanix in Germany.

FI, headquartered in Frankfurt am Main, generated revenues of around € 2.6 billion in 2024. Over the next two years, the company plans to migrate the virtual machines in its data centers to Nutanix's AHV hypervisor. At the same time, FI is focusing on a hyperconverged architecture as part of the migration.

"As an operator of critical infrastructure, our decision-making criteria for choosing Nutanix included the security, availability and cost effectiveness of the solution, as well as a partnership based on trust, intensive exchange and active participation on our part. This is clearly the case with Nutanix and Finanz Informatik looks forward to joining Nutanix's Executive Customer Advisory Board," said Dr. Marcus Schröter, Head of End-2-End Workplace and Chief Representative of FI. "The Nutanix platform is a technologically leading and future-proof infrastructure and virtualization platform on which we can both ensure efficient and secure operations and drive our innovations forward."

"Trust and partnership are the most valuable assets in strategic and long-term business relationships," emphasized Thomas Herrguth, General Manager, Germany at Nutanix. "The fact that FI, one of the largest and most renowned IT service providers in Germany, has placed this trust in us is a strong signal to the market. Together with the German team, I am very proud of this partnership and will work hard to make it an outstanding success and create long-term value."
